

Content

1	Introduction	4
1.1	Research Debate: Cold War Socialism between Autarky and Globalization	4
1.2	Spatial Orders and Spatial Formats: Socialist Bloc, Camp, and World in Globalization and Global Cold War	6
1.3	Operationalizing the Hypotheses	8
2	Chairman Cotton. Trade, Infrastructures and Knowledge Exchange between Socialist Bulgaria and African States (1950s to 1970s)	9
2.1	Cotton Trade of Socialist States and the Global Condition	9
2.2	Research Questions, Hypotheses and Approach	11
2.3	The Significance of Cotton Trade in the Bloc and for Bulgaria	13
2.4	Mutual Role Models: Bulgaria's special Relation with Third World Countries	14
2.5	Pre-Conclusion	15
3	African Socialism under Construction: Economic Relations and Scientific-technical Cooperation between Ghana and Eastern European Socialist Countries, 1957–1972	16
3.1	Ghana and the CMEA Countries	16
3.2	Research Questions and Hypotheses	17
3.3	Levels of Analyses	19
3.4	Interim findings	20
4	European CMEA Countries and the Concept of the New International Economic Order	21
4.1	Overview	21
4.2	The Core Idea and Basic Questions of the Research	22
4.3	Chances to turn the Tide in Global Economy	23
4.4	Tentative Efforts for Integrating Hungary into the World Economy	25
4.5	Preliminary Conclusion	28
5	Conclusion	29