

Table of contents

List of abbreviations	vii
List of tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Note on the editor	xv
Notes on contributors	xvii
Ulf Engel Introduction	1
João Gomes Porto Mediators not in the middle: Revisiting the normative dimensions of international mediation	11
Christopher Saunders The history of international mediation in Southern Africa: Some reflections	43
Ulf Engel The African Union and mediation in cases of Unconstitutional Changes of Government, 2008–2011	55
Kwaku Asante-Darko The African Union and the challenge of international mediation in Niger	83
Andreas Baumert and Ralph Ellermann The African Union's emerging policy on Unconstitutional Changes of Government – Mediation in Guinea and Madagascar	99
Gerrie Swart A right to intervene ... a reluctance to protect? Probing the African Union's response to and failed intervention in the Libyan crisis	127

Babatunde T. Afolabi ECOWAS and conflict mediation in West Africa	169
Helmut Orbon SADC and conflict mediation in Southern Africa	195
Antonia Witt A constructive engagement? The European Union's contributions to mediating coups d'état in Africa	211
Peter R. Sampson Conceptual shifts in multi-track mediation in Sub-Saharan Africa	237
Ulf Engel Ambitions, constraints and opportunities – Some tentative conclusions on new mediation practices in African conflicts	255
Index	263