

Collaborative Research Center (SFB) 1199
Processes of Spatialisation under the Global Condition at the University of Leipzig

Funded by Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft

Katharina P. W. Döring / Jens Herpolsheimer
"New Regionalisms" and Violent Conflicts in Africa: The Politics of the AU and ECOWAS in Mali and Guinea-Bissau
(= Working paper series des SFB 1199 an der Universität Leipzig, Nr. 5)

© SFB 1199
12 / 2016

Vertrieb:
Leipziger Universitätsverlag GmbH, Oststrasse 41, 04317 Leipzig, info@univerlag-leipzig.de

ISBN: 978-3-96023-084-7
ISSN: 2510-4845

Inhalt

Introduction	3
<hr/>
Literature: the conflicts in Mali and Guinea-Bissau and "New Regionalisms"	5
Mali in 2012	8
<hr/>
The intertwined events that led to the coup and independence declaration for Azawad	9
The politics of ECOWAS and the AU towards the multilayered conflict in Mali	12
Guinea-Bissau in 2012	15
<hr/>
Some background information on structural and more immediate factors leading to the coup in April 2012	15
The reactions of the AU and ECOWAS to the crisis in Guinea-Bissau following the coup of April 2012	18
Towards a spatial analysis of AU and ECOWAS politics in Mali and Guinea-Bissau	20
<hr/>
Conclusion and Outlook	23
<hr/>	