

Table of Contents

Matthias Middell Area Studies under the Global Condition. Debates on Where to Go with Regional or Area Studies in Germany	7
Geert Castryck Ex-Centring the Global. Liminality and Interconnectedness in Urban Kigoma	59
Isa Blumi Unsettling Paradigms: War in the Balkans, Refugees and the Forgotten Spaces of Change	79
Steffi Marung Peculiar Encounters with the “Black Continent”: Soviet Africanists in the Global 1960s and the Expansion of the Discipline	103
Markus-Michael Müller State Failure or State Formation? An African Perspective on Latin America’s “New Violence”	135
Kristin Seffer Turning the Tables on International Financial Institutions – Borrowing States and the Question of Regime	165
Martin Heckel Standardizing Islamic Finance: Questioning the traditional concept of Orient	191
Sarah-Ruth Sippel/Birgit Kemmerling Power Geometries of Food Security: A Critical Area Studies Perspective	215

Nadine Sieveking Culture as a Resource for Development? Critical Perspectives from the Field of Contemporary African Dance	249
Elisabetta Porcu Sacred Spaces Reloaded: New Trends in Shintō	279